

Puget Sound Writing Consortium

Application for Summer Institute: Reading and Writing in Social Studies and ELA

Classes will be held at St. Anne's School, 101 W. Lee, Seattle, WA August 5-9, from 8:30 am to 3:30 pm

Name _____

Phone _____ Cell Phone _____

Address _____

Email _____ Alternate email _____

School District _____ School _____

Current/Expected Job Assignment _____ Grade level _____ Content area _____

Cost for registration:

$400.00 for the class Checks should be made out to PSWC.

Send this application plus check or purchase order for $400.00 to the following address:

Janine Brodine,
PSWC
PO Box 197
Roslyn, WA 98941

Credit/Clock hours (Optional) $165 for 3 SPU quarter credits; $60 for 30 for SPU clock hours.

NOTE: Those wanting credit/clock hours will register online. We will send link later. Do not send payment to us.

For more information about the class: Contact Doug Selwyn or Kim Norton dougselwyn@aol.com

kimnortonlopez@gmail.com

For more information about registration: Contact Janine Brodine:

jsbrodine@gmail.com

Course description:

In this institute participants explore social studies and language arts using an integrated, thematic approach. The class addresses reading and writing for argument, guiding questions, as well as reading and writing narrative and poetry. Teachers will write daily. Participants will leave with inquiry and discussion skills to take immediately to the classroom. Instructional strategies are in line with best practices for inquiry learning and the Common Core standards. This Institute has been one of the most successful summer classes for over twenty years.